

LANDMARK LEARNING

The Learning Specialists for the Outdoor Industry.

Dear Landmark Learning Student:

Thank you for your interest in participating in an AMGA Single Pitch Instructor course offered by Fox Mountain Guides. We are pleased to be affiliated with American Mountain Guides Association and serve as a resource for your training needs.

The American Mountain Guides Association (AMGA) Single Pitch Instructor Program is the only nationally and also internationally recognized and endorsed climbing instructor certification for single pitch instructors in the USA. The certification is now required to work in many areas and is the certification required by most employers seeking climbing instructors in the USA today.

Title: AMGA Single Pitch Instructor Course

Dates: December 4-6, 2010

Location: Fox Mountain Guides Center, NC

Cost: $440 which includes one year's membership of the AMGA.

Course Pre-requisites:

- *Have a genuine interest in rock climbing and instructing novices on single pitch crags.
- *Are at least 18 years old at the time of the course.
- *Have at least 12 months prior climbing experience.
- *Are an active climber with traditional lead climbing experience (leader placing pro).
- *Have trad lead climbed a minimum of 15 graded rock climbing routes (any grade).
- *Are capable of comfortably climbing 5.8 while on a top rope.

The above pre-requisites are absolute minimums and most candidates have way in excess of the above.

To complete your registration send us your Registration Form along with your deposit for 50% of the course tuition 30 days prior to the course. Our office will register you with Fox Mountain Guides who will then be in touch with your pre-course materials.

~ For information about AMGA and their programs please visit: www.amga.com

~ For information about SPI course sites, instructors, and logistics please visit: www.foxmountainguides.com

~ Finally, for registration information please visit us at: main@landmarklearning.org

Please be in touch with questions or concerns that you may have prior to the course. We look forward to welcoming you as a student.

Morgan Minus
Student Services Coordinator

